PERSONAL TRAINING

With personal training, a certified trainer has the opportunity to work one-on-one with the individual in designing a customized routine. If you are interested in receiving personal training, fill out an informational sheet at the fitness or registration desk. Our certified and experienced personal trainers can design a workout program to suit any of your needs. Safety will be emphasized. Personal training sessions are 55 minutes in length—Youth training sessions are 45 minutes NOTE: Personal training sessions expire one year after purchase. Personal training is non-refundable. Prices are per person and those signing up together for group training must train together. If you have any questions, please see the Fitness Manager, Deborah Graham Geghen.

THE KIDZ ROOM

RESIDENT ACTIVITY PASS

- Each credit on a pass costs $.80 and is worth $1 in daily fees (a 20% savings).
- You may purchase credits in increments of 5 credits at a cost of $4.00.
- Credits on passes may be shared, however, each participant must possess a Resident ID issued by the Recreation Department.
- The Resident Activity Pass has been designed for your convenience by eliminating the need to carry cash. When a Resident Activity Pass is purchased, credits (worth dollars) will be placed on your card and can be used toward any of the daily fees charged for Sportsplex activities as listed. An Activity Pass may not be used at the Centennial Pool or Winter Wonderland Ice Rink. Passes are available at either Recreation Department office during regular office hours. Please retain your card from year to year.

ORLAND PARK RESIDENT I.D

- To ensure that resident privileges are not abused, a Resident ID must be issued to all Orland Park residents 3 years of age and older, who do not hold any active memberships. Any resident 3 years of age and older who wishes to participate in any recreational activities must possess a Resident ID. This Resident ID will be required as proof of residency to receive resident rates.
- Resident ID cards are available at either Recreation Department office free of charge. A driver's license and current utility bill are required to obtain a Resident ID. No other proof of residency will be accepted for drop-in activities. ID cards must be retained from year to year. Residents under the age of 18 must obtain a parents signature on a waiver.
- ID's must be renewed annually by presenting a current driver's license and a current utility bill. Non-resident rates will be charged to all participants without a Village of Orland Park Resident ID.
